

SYMBOL FIFTEEN

This symbol is the true ascended flower of life. The 8x8+8 where the flow of life is in complete balance with energy. It is where the feminine & masculine meet in perfect synchronicity. The flow from in to out, 8 in 8 directions anchored by the pillars of flow from out to in 8. Wearing this symbol alone allows the untampered original feminine and masculine flow of life to move through the body unhindered. Clearing and cleansing from original lineage to current existence; The flow of divine feminine and masculine pure source light. This symbols expression is the release of angst all the way through initial expression of mother/father God. It can be a trigger to most due to the current worlds (2023) unhealed relations within themselves, family and God. Wearing it will bring to light at a quicker rate organically any unhealed wounding regarding those 3. Since it has the anchor points from out to in inside the flow of life, as our wounding is brought to light to be cleansed, it helps to keep the heart open so the "trauma" can flow through and clear effectively and indefinitely. One can experience this flow it in their feeling body, an event happening in life etc... once realized that its being brought to cleanse from your coding, watch as it turns the trauma into transformation smoother. It will cleanse at the rate that is needed to allow the body to hold more organic light. This symbols anchor point is of pure harmony of flow of life with divine mother and father so it doesn't allow within its field any less, meaning organically cleansing until its person is fully aligned to their ascended flower of life.
