

SYMBOL TWENTY ONE

This symbol has to do with the balance and harmony of the human monad structure as it relates to Earth. It helps create a stabilization point of our organic DNA in our bodies. It allows the access point of ascended earth to directly connect with the human genome which can then transcend the current inorganic templating into organic. Physical access point to ascended coding of mother then anchoring it into person holding/wearing symbol. Where one wouldn't normally be able to access the organic human genome, this allows it so. And if someone has already opened up that level of templating in their field it will harmonize and balance it further. To paint a picture of the essence of this symbol, if you were to imagine the Divine feminine and masculine consulting about how to create themselves in form, this symbol would be the expression from that point. Expression is original creation of human monad genome and coding. Being in resonance with this symbol can trigger the "spiritual vertigo" people need to balance and harmonize. It takes the "reptilian" plateaued DNA and starts to transmute it back into love. Think of us humans as a caterpillar, we currently are the caterpillar and to start the process of physical metamorphosis into the butterfly, there are certain conditions that this symbol directly accesses and assists with the balance and harmony of. Which then eventually renders the start the "cocooning process" of our organic human monad or if someone that has been doing pre-existing "cocooning process" work it furthers along the reclaiming our organic human monad.
