

SYMBOL FORTYNINE

This symbol is one of the 144 Master Organic Symbols. A master symbol is a direct representation of a committee member of the cosmic council of 144. Each being is different than one another bringing a numerous amount of different coding through. Its expression is the entirety of the essence of said member. This symbol is the representation of Masculine flower fairies and their essences. ALL masculine essences created, stem from this symbol. Its expression can be seen or felt as ALL masculine fairy essences are connected with the physical body and emotions. The way it works is it takes the bioenergetic and magnetic fields, looks at what is necessary in the moment and implements the fairy essence organically. Be aware that this symbol respectively is in neutrality with the physical body and emotional body. It encompasses the physical and emotional bodies in one long organic code. When wearing or using this symbol one can feel very centered or very absent. This is due to the inherently pure neutral zone, which connects with the intended users, harmonizing and neutralizing any unhelpful emotions and physical angst that the person may currently be experiencing. This symbol is directly associated with the Devic Realm, where Pan assimilated its blueprinting and structured it to form the original organic template from which all flower fairies and their essences originate and can be utilized if necessary. Each essence of flower fairy has a specific role, so many in fact that in order to gather all in a simplified symbol, there had to be created a counterpart to this symbol. Feminine Flower Fairies.
